Cherbury April 15th

My Dear Sir,

CC26. [1861]

I enclose a letter recd yesterday for you, containing of a Circular sent by the British Consul to the British Ministers in Washington, in the which in this State will probably be referred to.

I have not time to write you the wants of the last three days - but you will find them fully set forth in the papers, especially, ^{in the} Morning -

There was no other attention left to the authorities than just what they did - They had to choose between an effort to talked Fort Sumter at once & fought that fortress down, or to wait and fight the fort & the fleet together - Of course the Republican Discharge upon us that we commenced the War, such as should bring down upon us the vengeance of the Government and I saw the United Northern States, but it cannot be helped - The issue has to be met, however difficult.

Remember me to Mr.
Sumner. Yours truly
J. F. Garrison

No two left in either side.
